Historical Society slates several upcoming events

At the February 6 meeting of the Carbondale Historical Society in Room 301 of Carbondale City Hall, the society made plans for future events to be held in Carbondale.

Among these events will be a show on February 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Marian Hall on the Delaware and Hudson Railroad and Canal. Mr. Robert Powell, John Buberniak and Robert Tomaine will speak on the railroad and canal. The speeches will be followed by a film called, 'The Canawler." Refreshments wiall be served following the event.

On February 20 in Room 301 of City Hall the invitational grand reopening of Room 301 and "The Metro Photography Show" will be held by the society. The society will then have the room and photography show open to the general public with a schedule of times to be announced.

On Thursday, April 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Berean Baptist Church Social Hall, located on the ground floor, the society will hold another town hall meeting. The subject of the meeting will be "Meet the Candidates." All announced candidates for public office will be invited to speak at this meeting.

The Historical Society also has planned to help restore Memorial Park by cleaning up the park and planting spring and summer flowers. The society also plans to plant bushes in the future, and restore the park to its original beauty.

Also, the society is now in the midst of making plans for lectures and exhibits to be held during Pioneer Days in City Council Chambers and Room 301.

Anyone wishing to contribute any artifacts to the society may do so by contacting the Historical Society, Box 151, Carbondale, PA 18407.

Exhibit hours are listed

The Carbondale Historical Society announces its schedule for viewing of "The Metro Photography Exhibit."

On Sunday, February 20, the exhibit will be invitational only. Viewing of the exhibit will be from 2 to 5 p.m.

General public viewings will begin on Monday, February 21, from 12 to 4 p.m.

On Thursday, February 24, viewing will be held from 6 to 9 p.m.

Then, on Sunday, February 27, the photo's can be seen between 2 and 4 p.m.

The exhibit will be in City Hall, Room 301, till March 20. Further scheduling will be announced on a weekly basis.